Outline

This course is a general overview of the postwar British novel, covering roughly the time period from 1968 up to now. The course focuses on the multicultural Britain of the late 20th and early 21st century, paying attention to recent historical, social, and intellectual trends. The class will be based on lectures, group presentations, blog and paper assignments, and an exam.

Goals

- To gain subject knowledge of the history of English language, novels, and culture
- To gain confidence in reading different genres and styles of texts
- To gain confidence in discussion and reasoning skills
- To improve skills in writing and researching academic papers

Humanities programs are usually overlooked because they are not flashy and digital like I.T. or science/engineering ones are. But while cultural and literary ideas are interesting and important, the chief goal of a humanities education is to teach you to analyze information, reason abstractly, and communicate your ideas. These will be critical job and personal skills for whatever new career fields develop in the 21st century.

Class Rules

All discussion in class where possible will be in English. While it's understood that for most of you English is a second language, it is essential that you participate in class, and in English, in order to improve your spoken skills and to increase your thinking and response time. Students who hide in the back rows to play with phones and avoid being involved will get the grades they deserve.

Computers and tablets are welcome but may not be used for surfing or games. Please use Microsoft Word for written assignments, or an English-language word processor.

Texts

Any English-language book or e-book version is fine.

1. Bridget Jones's Diary (Helen Fielding)
2. White Teeth (Zadie Smith)
3. Guards! Guards! (Terry Pratchett)
4. The Remains of the Day (Kazuo Ishiguro)
5. Optional: Writing Academic Papers in English: for Korean Writers (Kenneth Eckert)

Evaluation

1. Paper assignments (2 drafts x 15%)	30%
2. Blog discussions on WordPress site (4x3%)	12%
3. In-class quizzes and writing	18%
4. Group project	20%
5. Final exam	20%

Sick notes excuse missing the class, not the class's content. Except for agreed arrangements (such as practicums and military service), all missed quizzes, presentations, or exams receive grades of zero. Students who miss 10.0 classes fail the course by university regulations. One late = 1/3 absence.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the uncredited use of someone else's ideas or words, and is widely considered not only as cheating but illegal. All plagiarized papers or posts with text copied from the internet or other students will at my discretion be failed and reported to the college.
